Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

Whereas, Terry Leach has devoted over 27 years of his career helping to maintain a safe and efficient transportation system in South Dakota by performing various duties within the Department of Transportation; and,

Whereas, Terry has been a dedicated servant to the people of South Dakota since joining the South Dakota Highway Department on April 14, 1980, serving in the capacity of Highway Maintenance Worker (I and II), Senior Highway Maintenance Worker, Lead Highway Maintenance Worker and Highway Maintenance Foreman; and,

Whereas, In the month of July 2007, it has come time for Terry to retire, west of Rapid City, with his wife, Michelle; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the contributions, devotion and years of service of this outstanding South Dakotan on such a momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 31, 2007, as in South Dakota, and I join his family and friends from the South Dakota Department of Transportation in wishing him a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Nineteenth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
